PREVIEW / NOTES

First-and-Goal...

- Beginning his third season at Maryland, head coach Randy Edsall and the Terrapins welcome back a number of talented performers on offense, but will be faced with replacing the bulk of a defense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in 2012. The Terps return 37 letterwinners overall, including 18 on offense and six starters on that side of the ball. Quarterback C.J. Brown's return to the field after missing all of last season should stabilize an offense stacked with young, talented playmakers.
- Sophomore wide receiver Stefon Diggs leads the list of six starters back on offense. A second team All-ACC selection as a specialist last season, the multi-faceted Diggs led the ACC and ranked eighth nationally in all-purpose yards with 172.4 per game. Diggs, who led the team and ranked fifth in the league with 77.1 receiving yards per game in 2012, is expected to be the focal point of a talented receiving corps. Another sophomore, running back Brandon Ross, could spearhead a running game that is also stocked with young talent. Ross came on strong at the end of last season, recording two 100-yard rushing games in the last three contests, including 141 in the season finale. The Terps hope three returning starters along the offensive line – Mike Madaras, De'Onte Arnett and Sal Conaboy – can pave the way for the rushing attack.
- The defense made major strides in its first season under coordinator Brian Stewart last season, ranking 21st nationally in total defense, 26th in rushing defense and 30th in passing defense. Though six starters will have to be replaced, including All-America defensive lineman Joe Vellano and linebacker Demetrius Hartsfield, a two-time All-ACC selection, the secondary should be a position of strength. A two-year starter, senior cornerback Dexter McDougle led the team with 58 solo tackles and ranked third with 71 overall last year. Opposite of McDougle, junior Jeremiah Johnson will be in his second year as a starter after leading the team with eight pass breakups a year ago. Johnson also had five tackles for loss in 2012, tops on the team among defensive backs. Sophomore safety Anthony Nixon is also back after starting five games as a true freshman last season. Along the front seven, leading tackler Cole Farrand is back at linebacker, and nose tackle Darius Kilgo will anchor the defensive line.
- A year after entering the season with few known quantities on special teams, the Terps return starters at all five positions this year. Diggs anchored the kick and punt return games as a freshman, while Brad Craddock is back at kicker and Nathan Renfro is back at punter. Senior Greg Parcher enters his second season handling the long-snapping duties.

Quick Hitters...

- The Terrapins return 70 percent of the offensive and defensive two-deep from the end of last season. There are 16 of 22 defensive players back and 15 of 22 offensive players returning. In addition, all 12 of the members on the final special teams two-deep are back in 2013.
- Maryland has just 13 seniors listed on the 2013 roster, with eight of those listed on the offensive and defensive two-deep.
- The Terrapin defense will have to replace six starters, but return five starters along with several other players with starting experience. Though they aren't listed as returning starters, LB Alex Twine, LB L.A. Goree, LB Bradley Johnson, S Sean Davis, S Isaac Goins, DB A.J. Hendy, DL Andre Monroe, DL Keith Bowers and LB Marcus Whitfield have all started during their careers.
- The combination of a talented 2012 recruiting class and a number of injuries led Maryland to play 15 true freshmen in 2012. That tied for the third most in the FBS, behind only Texas and TCU who each played 16.
- There are three returning starters (Mike Madaras, De'Onte Arnett and Sal Conaboy) on Maryland's offensive line. Another three players have started in their careers: Evan Mulrooney, Andrew Zeller and Nick Klemm. The Terps also added junior-college transfer Silvano Altamirano from San Diego Mesa College.
- Along with Altamirano, WR Deon Long and DB William Likely joined the Terps for spring practice adding three new scholarship players to the program last semester. Long, a Washington, D.C., native, was a first team All-American at Iowa Western last season. Likely is a true freshman early enrollee. The defensive back was a four-star recruit from Glades Central High School in Belle Glade, Fla.
- The Terps had two freshmen running backs hit 100 yards rushing on three occassions last season, a feat that has only been achieved 15 times in school history. Wes Brown rushed for 121 yards on 25 carries against NC State (10/20) to become Maryland's first 100-yard rusher of the season. That marked just the 13th time in school history that a freshman rushed for 100 yards in a game, and the first since Josh Allen on Oct. 5, 2002. Then, against Clemson, Brandon Ross ran for 100 yards on 16 carries. Ross also ran for 141 yards at North Carolina, including a season-long 71-yard run.
- Six bowl teams from last year appear on Maryland's 2013 schedule: West Virginia (New Era Pinstripe Bowl), Florida State (Discover Orange Bowl), Clemson (Chick-Fil-A Bowl), Syracuse (New Era Pinstripe Bowl), Virginia Tech (Russell Athletic Bowl), and North Carolina State (Music City Bowl).

Depth, Talent at Wide Receiver...

- Stefon Diggs is back for his sophomore season to lead a deep and talented group of wide receivers. Diggs had an electric freshman campaign that saw him set the Maryland single-season receiving yards record for a freshman by totaling 848 yards. Diggs' 848 receiving yards are the third-most by an ACC rookie all time, and his 54 receptions rank sixth. The addition of five-star recruit and junior-college transfer Deon Long bolsters the unit. Long, who spent last season at Iowa Western, earned first team All-America honors while leading the NJCAA in receptions (100), receiving yards (1,625) and touchdowns (25). The Terps also return Nigel King, who had an outstanding spring, and fellow underclassmen Levern Jacobs, Tyrek Cheeseboro and Amba Etta.

Under Center...

- For the second time in as many years, quarterback C.J. Brown will enter fall camp as the projected starter at quarterback. Brown had a breakout season in 2011, setting a Maryland single-season rushing yards record (574) for a quarterback and throwing for 842 yards in 10 games (five starts). A dual-threat, Brown spent last season learning offensive coordinator Mike Locksley's offense while sitting out with an knee injury suffered in fall camp. His ability to run – he boasts three of the top eight rushing performances by a QB in school history – and make plays with his arm should suit Locksley's pro-style/spread offense well.

Terps By The Numbers

1...Stefon Diggs set the Atlantic Coast Conference freshman single-season record for all purpose yards per game last year, averaging 172.4. That number ranked eighth nationally.

3...Running back Brandon Ross recorded two 100-yard rushing games in the final three games last season (100 at Clemson, 141 at North Carolina).

5...Maryland signed five four-star recruits for the 2013 season.

15...Number of true freshmen that played last season.

24...Senior defensive back Dexter McDougle has started 24 consecutive games, tops on the team.

87...Maryland improved 87 spots in the national rankings for total defense last season, moving from No. 108 in 2011 to No. 21 in 2012, the first year under coordinator Brian Stewart.

120.4...After the defense allowed 457.2 yards per game in 2011, it allowed just 336.8 per game in 2012, a drop of 120.4 yards.

137...Dexter McDougle is tops on the team with 137 career tackles.

848...The number of receiving yards for wide receiver Stefon Diggs in 2012. The yardage total is the best total by a freshman in school history and the third best total in league history.

937...The program's Academic Progress Rate (APR), which measures eligibility and retention, has trended upward in Randy Edsall's two seasons after previously declining for five straight years. The multiyear score has increased from 922 (2009-10) to 931 (2010-11) to 937 (2011-12).

- After suffering the second season-ending injury of his career prior to last season, Brown applied for and was awarded with a sixth year of eligibility in April. Brown redshirted in 2009 before playing in one game in 2010, when he fractured his right shoulder and missed the season's final 11 games. He will have eligibility for the 2013 and 2014 seasons.
- Behind Brown, the Terps have a number of able signal-callers. Sophomores Perry Hills and Caleb Rowe both gained experience last season, with Hills starting the first seven games and throwing for 1,336 yards before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Rowe played in two games, including a start at Boston College, before also suffering a season-ending knee injury. Transfer Ricardo Young gives the Terps another dual-threat and gained experience while serving as the No. 1 QB during spring camp. Young was the 2010 Washington D.C. Gatorade Player of the Year coming out of H.D. Woodson High School, but has yet to take a snap in college after stops at Virginia Tech (2010) and New Mexico (2011).

Depth at Running Back...

- With a year of experience under their belts, sophomore running backs Brandon Ross, Wes Brown and Albert Reid will give Maryland a talented trio of runners in the backfield this season. All three earned at least one start last season, with Ross and Brown ranking first and second on the team, respectively, in rushing yards. Brown missed the final four games of the season with an ankle and shoulder injury, opening the door for Ross to come on strong over the last third of the season. Ross had two 100-yard games in the final three weeks, running for 100 at Clemson and 141 at North Carolina. The 5-foot-10, 210-pound running back solidified his hold on first-string duties with an impressive spring that included a 122-yard rushing performance in the spring game. Reid, meanwhile, also had a productive spring and rushed for 135 yards on 23 carries for the second-team offense in the spring game. Brown sat out the spring while recovering from shoulder surgery but is expected to be at full strength for fall camp.

Openings on Defense...

- With the departure of six starters on defense, Maryland will have some roles to fill on that side of the ball. The unit ranked 21st nationally in total defense last season, allowing 336.8 yards per game to opponents. Despite the departure of those six players, there is talent returning. In the secondary, cornerback Dexter McDougle has started 24 straight games, while cornerback Jeremiah Johnson flourished his first year as a starter in 2012. Safeties Anthony Nixon, Sean Davis and A.J. Hendy, all of whom have starting experience, also return. At linebacker, Cole Farrand will anchor one of the inside spots. Farrand had a breakout sophomore campaign in 2012, tying for the team lead with 78 tackles while adding six tackles for loss, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. L.A. Goree is listed as the starter at the other inside spot. With 105 career tackles, he is the active leader in tackles among the front seven. Goree was a freshman All-American in 2011, when he recorded 60 tackles including six for a loss. Matt Robinson, who battled injuries in each of the last two seasons, has moved from safety to outside linebacker. Robinson had a promising start to the 2011 season - averaging 12.0 tackles per game in the first three contests before an injury sidelined him. Senior Marcus Whitfield, who played in all 12 games last year with two starts, is listed as a starter opposite of Robinson. Junior Alex Twine (62 career tackles) and sophomore Avery Thompson have experience and are listed as the backups at the outside linebacker positions. On the line, Darius Kilgo (nose tackle) is the lone returning starter, while Quinton Jefferson and Keith Bowers are at the top of the depth chart at the two end positions.

D-Line Makeover...

- Maryland will have to replace two stalwarts along the defensive line after the graduation of All-American Joe Vellano and A.J. Francis, a pair which combined to start 72 games in their careers. Junior nose tackle Darius Kilgo is the lone returning starter and after a solid season in 2012, has stepped into a leadership position, representing the d-line on Maryland's newly-formed leadership council. After battling injuries last season, junior Keith Bowers hopes to return to his 2011 form, when he was an honorable mention freshman All-America selection. Sophomore Quinton Jefferson, one of the top defensive end prospects nationally coming out of high school, seems to have secured the other end position after an impressive spring. Behind Kilgo, Nate Clarke and Alex Walker provide depth, while 2011 freshman All-American Andre Monroe and Roman Braglio are listed as the backups behind Bowers and Jefferson, respectively.

Experienced Secondary...

- Entering the fall, the secondary could be Maryland's most stable unit as it returns cornerbacks Dexter McDougle and Jeremiah Johnson, and safeties Anthony Nixon, Sean Davis and A.J. Hendy. Maryland ranked 30th nationally in passing defense a year ago, allowing just 207.5 yards per game through the air, and this season adds talented freshman William Likely in addition to the aforementioned group. Likely, who enrolled in classes in January, impressed in spring practice and could find his way on the field early in his career. McDougle and Johnson, though, have the potential to turn in to shut down corners after both having solid campaigns in 2012. McDougle led all defensive backs with 71 tackles last year, while Johnson had a team-high eight pass breakups. Senior Isaac Goins and sophomore Alvin Hill will also be in the mix at cornerback.
- Last year, Nixon played in all 12 games with five starts and led all freshmen on the team with 41 tackles including 26 solo stops. The Pittsburgh native also had one interception, three passes defended and two fumble recoveries and appears to have one of the safety positions locked up. At the other spot, Hendy and Davis are listed as co-starters heading into fall camp. Hendy was somewhat limited last season due to a nagging ankle injury, but played in nine games as a freshman and averaged 8.3 tackles per game in his three starts. Davis, meanwhile, played in all 12 games with two starts as a true freshman last year.

Offensive Starters Returning/Lost...

- A first team All-ACC selection in 2010 who played at safety and linebacker, playing in 49 games with 28 starts during his career ... had 239 tackles including 20 for loss in his career.

Special Teams Stability...

- After entering last season with few known quantities, the Terps hope the return of all their special teams performers from 2012, combined with the addition of several new playmakers, makes for increased stability in the unit in 2013. Rising sophomores Brad Craddock and Nathan Renfro are expected to anchor the kicking game, with Craddock handling kickoff and place-kicking duties and Renfro handling the punting. Stefon Diggs was a constant threat in the return game last season, returning two kicks for touchdowns and averaging 10 yards per return on punts. Junior Deon Long and freshman William Likely add speedy options in the return game.

All-Purpose Performer...

- Stefon Diggs had a record-breaking freshman season a year ago, setting the ACC Freshman All-Purpose Yardage record by averaging 172.4 per game, a mark which also ranked eighth nationally. Until recently, it was a mark that hadn't been broken in more than 20 years; Robert Lavette of Georgia Tech set the previous record of 142.0 yards per game in 1981, which stood until Sammy Watkins of Clemson set a new record with 171.4 yards per game in 2011. Diggs finished just ahead of Miami's Duke Johnson, who averaged 171.7 yards per game last season.

Top ACC Freshman All-Purpose Yardage

	Player	School	Year	Average
1.	Stefon Diggs	Maryland	2012	172.4
2.	Duke Johnson	Miami	2012	171.7
3.	Sammy Watkins	Clemson	2011	171.4
4.	Robert Lavette	Georgia Tech	1981	142.0
5.	Ryan Williams	Virginia Tech	2009	141.2

- On the Maryland charts, Diggs' 1,896 all-purpose yards are the second-most in a single season behind Torrey Smith's 2,192 in 2009. Diggs will move into the school's top-25 career all-purpose yards list with another 298 yards. The school record is held by Smith (5,264).

Diggs Named to Biletnikoff Maxwell, Hornung Award Watch Lists...

- Stefon Diggs was named to a trio of prestigious watch lists over the summer. Diggs was one of just four sophomores named to the Hornung Award Watch List, which is given annually to the most versatile player in major college football by the Louisville Sports Commission and football legend and Louisville native Paul Hornung. A total of 44 players were named to the list, including six from the ACC. Diggs was also named to the Maxwell Award Watch List, given annually to college football's best player. He is one of 10 sophomores nationally and eight players from the ACC to be named to the 76-man watch list. The award has been given out since 1937. He was also named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, which is given to the nation's most outstanding wide receiver.
- In addition to the Maxwell and Hornung Watch Lists, Diggs was named first team All-ACC wide receiver by Phil Steele, Athlon and Sporting News, first team All-ACC all-purpose by Lindy's, and second team All-ACC wide receiver by Lindy's. Diggs also received a third team All-America spot on Steele's preseason team.

Looking for Stability...

- With the return of six players with starting experience along the offensive line, Maryland hopes to develop cohesion in a unit that went through several rotations a year ago. Though the versatile Bennett Fulper, a three-year starter on the line, will have to be replaced, guard De'Onte Arnett (10 starts), center Sal Conaboy (nine), left tackle Mike Madaras (eight), center Evan Mulrooney (five), right tackle Nick Klemm (four) and guard Andrew Zeller (three) all have experience starting on the line. With Conaboy and Mulrooney battling for the starting center position, that group of six looks to make up a solid first unit. Maryland will need to build depth and develop a second unit amongst a group of somewhat inexperienced linemen. Junior-college transfer Silvano Altamirano is listed as Arnett's backup at left guard, while junior Gary Harraka is penciled in to back up Zeller at right guard. Sophomore Ryan Doyle will backup Madaras at left tackle, while redshirt freshman Michael Dunn and junior Jake Wheeler will battle for the backup right tackle position.

Entering Year Two...

- The Terps have more familiarity with their offensive and defensive systems this spring, as coordinators Mike Locksley and Brian Stewart are entering their second year with Maryland. Locksley was hired in December 2011 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Locksley, a native of Washington, D.C., returned to Maryland after previously spending six years (1997-2002) as an assistant coach on the Terrapins staff. Stewart was hired in January 2012 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart recently completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll. He helped Maryland rank 21st nationally in total defense last year.

Terps Continue Momentum in Recruiting...

- With the addition of 21 players including some of the local area's top talent, Maryland for the second consecutive year landed a top-35 recruiting class in February.

Special Teams Starters Returning/Lost...

Starters Returning (5)

KR/PR Stefon Diggs So.-1V 6-0, 195

- An honorable mention All-ACC selection as a specialist last season ... averaged 10.0 yards per return on 22 punt returns, and 28.5 yards on kickoffs, along with two TD returns.

PK Brad Craddock So.-1V 6-1, 180

- Connected on 10 of 16 field goals as a ture freshman last season with a long of 52 yards, and also handled kickoff duties.

P Nathan Renfro So.-1V 6-1, 205

- Averaged 39.7 yards per punt on 75 attempts as a redshirt freshman last season, putting 15 of those punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

LS Greg Parcher Sr.-1V 6-3, 205

- Took over as the starting long snapper as a junior in 2012 ... part of the special teams unit that did not allow a punt or kick attempt to be blocked on the season.

The Terps landed the Gatorade Player of the Year in Washington, D.C., for the second straight year with the signing of linebacker Yannick Ngakoue from Friendship Collegiate Academy. The aforementioned Long gives Maryland a five-star wide receiver signee for the second straight year, while the addition of four-star recruit Taivon Jacobs and DeAndre Lane bolsters an already loaded wide receiving corps. Quarterback Shane Cockerille, tight end Andrew Isaacs and defensive back William Likely are also four-star recruits joining the Maryland roster this fall.

Revamped Linebacking Corps...

- Similar to the defensive line, Maryland will be faced with replacing several stalwarts in the linebacking corps, though a new crop of talented playmakers is ready to step in. Perhaps one of the deepest positions on the team, the Terps have a first and second unit established despite the loss of Demetrius Hartsfield, Kenneth Tate and Darin Drakeford. On the inside, Cole Farrand and L.A. Goree give Maryland a pair of established veterans to help direct the unit. Farrand tied for the team lead in tackles as a sophomore last season, his first as a starter, while making six tackles for loss and forcing three fumbles, and is fully healthy after missing the spring with an ankle fracture. Goree was one of the most consistent players on defense in the spring and brings versatility to the unit, having played on the outside and inside during his career. The junior averaged 12.3 tackles per game in his three starts a season ago. Behind Farrand is senior Bradley Johnson, while redshirt freshman and former four-star recruit Abner Logan will be ready to step in behind Goree.
- Converted safety Matt Robinson, healthy after battling injuries in each of the last two seasons, looks to solidify one of the outside linebacker positions. Senior Marcus Whitfield is penciled in as the starter at the other outside spot, and there is depth behind those two with Alex Twine and Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil.

Coaching Staff At-A-Glance...

- Mike Locksley was hired in December 2011 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Locksley, a native of Washington, D.C., returned to Maryland after previously spending six years (1997-2002) as an assistant coach on the Terrapins staff. A veteran coach with over 20 years experience, Locksley most recently spent four years (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-2011) as head coach at the University of New Mexico. Locksley helped the Fighting Illini offense improve from No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 yards per game) in 2008. The Illinois offense ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007) in rushing yards. Known for strong recruiting skills, Locksley was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com.
- Brian Stewart was hired in January 2012 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart recently completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll. The Cougars had one of the best defenses in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second – 67 percent), interceptions (t-third – 21), tackles for loss (sixth – 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th – 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th – 111.75 rating). Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) this past year. Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas.
- Lyndon Johnson is in his third year on staff and second overseeing both outside linebacker positions (Sam and Will), while Andre Powell is in his second season as special-teams coordinator, in addition to his running back chores. Powell was a special-teams coordinator during each of his last two stops – Clemson (2007-10) and North Carolina (2001-06). He handled both running backs and special-teams duties the final three seasons at each job.
- Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso was elevated to assistant head coach prior to last season. The former head coach of Duquesne (1992-2004), Gattuso spent six seasons (2005-10) as the defensive line coach at Pittsburgh.
- The rest of the staff remains in tact, with Tom Brattan entering his 13th season coaching the offensive line, Lee Hull entering his sixth season coaching the wide receivers, Keith Dudzinski entering his third year coaching the inside linebackers and John Dunn entering his third year coaching the tight ends.

Terps Establish Leadership Council...

- This offseason, Maryland established a leadership council for the 2013 season. Coaches for 10 position groups selected the council based upon performance on the field, in the film room and overall leadership ability. The council is: senior C.J. Brown (quarterback), junior Sal Conaboy (offensive line), junior Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil (outside linebacker), sophomore Stefon Diggs (wide receiver), junior Cole Farrand (inside linebacker), junior Jeremiah Johnson (defensive back), junior Darius Kilgo (defensive line), senior Greg Parcher (specialist), sophomore Albert Reid (running back) and senior Dave Stinebaugh (tight end).

Making The Grade...

- A strong emphasis has been placed on improving the team's Athletic Progress Rate (APR) since head coach Randy Edsall arrived at Maryland. Following a five-year decline, the football team's APR, which measures eligibility and retention, increased its multi-year score from 922 (2009-2010) to 937and its single year score from 905 to 948. The football team's cumulative GPA has risen each semester since Edsall took over the program, as well.

Terps Expand Outreach...

- Head coach Randy Edsall and the Terps made it a priority in the offseason to get out in the community, holding two spring scrimmages off campus for the first time. Maryland held a scrimmage at Dunbar High School in Baltimore on March 30 and another at Middletown High School in Middletown on April 6. It was part of a broad-based effort to expand the reach of Maryland football within the state. Edsall also made stops in Annapolis and Ocean City on the athletic department's Coaches Caravan. Additionally, Edsall participated in the Big Ten Open at Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, which was an exclusive fundraising event that also included Big Ten Commissioner Jim Delany, men's basketball coach Mark Turgeon and Purdue men's basketball coach Matt Painter.

NEWCOMER PROFILES

Spurred by a bevy of the area's top players, along with key additions from around the nation, the University of Maryland football team signed a top-35 recruiting class for the second consecutive year.

Head coach Randy Edsall announced the signing of 21 student-athletes for the 2013 season, 18 of whom signed national letters-of-intent on National Signing Day. Three signees enrolled in classes at the university for the spring semester.

The class includes 13 defensive players and eight on the offensive side, while 13 of the players hail from the Maryland/Washington D.C. area. The Terps landed a five-star recruit for the second consecutive year and have five incoming players labeled as four-star recruits.

"Overall I'm very thrilled and excited because we were able to go out and meet the needs that we needed to in this year's class," said head coach Randy Edsall. "I'm also very proud that we closed strong, getting three young men on signing day, and they're local kids."

For the second straight year, Maryland landed the Gatorade Player of the Year in Washington, D.C. in Yannick Ngakoue (Prounounced: Ya-neek In-gah-kway). A linebacker from Friendship Collegiate Academy, Ngakoue played in the Under Armour All-America game and is a Parade All-American.

Deon Long, a five-star wide receiver who spent last season at Iowa Western Community College, strengthens an already impressive receiving corps. The Terps also added a pair of local wideouts in four-star receiver Taivon Jacobs of Suitland High School and DeAndre Lane of Catonsville Senior High School.

Jacquille Veii, a highly-touted defensive back from The Avalon School in Gaithersburg, Md., was one of the three players to pledge their commitment to Maryland on signing day, joining Jacobs and Ngakoue.

According to 247Sports.com, three of the top seven players in D.C. are headed to Maryland, including linebackers Cavon Walker (No. 6) and Jermaine Carter (No. 7). The aforementioned Ngakoue is the third-ranked player in D.C.

Both 247Sports.com and Rivals.com rank Maryland's class as the 30th-best in the nation. Rivals also has Maryland's class as the fifth-best in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"I'm just very proud of the coaching staff for the work and effort they've put in to getting this done," said Edsall. "Then I'm also just very happy for all these young men that we've signed because they see what we're doing, what we're building, and they wanted to be a part of something special."

In addition to Jacobs and Ngakoue, the Terps added three more four-star recruits in quarterback Shane Cockerille, tight end Andrew Isaacs and defensive back William Likely. Cockerille, a dual-threat quarterback from The Gilman School, was a member of ESPN's Elite 11, a camp which ranks the top prep quarterbacks in the nation.

Likely is one of three early enrollees, joining Long and offensive lineman Silvano Altamirano, who spent the past two seasons at San Diego Mesa College.

A talented group of incoming linebackers also includes Jalen Brooks, one of two recruits from the state of Georgia, and Derrick Hayward of Wicomico High School in Salisbury, Md.

Milan Collins of Bishop McNamara High School in La Plata, Md., Elvis Dennah of Annapolis Area Christian School in Annapolis, and Jarrett Ross, the lone Delaware signee, round out a group of five defensive backs.

The Terps also added three strong defensive linemen, going into Florida to get Bozeman High School product Chandler Burkett and Mandarin High School's Kingsley Opara, as well as Malik Jones of Paul L. Dunbar High School in Baltimore.

Maryland also has two quality additions along the offensive line in JaJuan Dulaney of McEachern High School in Powder Springs, Ga., and Moise Larose of Wilde Lake High School in Odenton, Md.

Randy Edsall

Head Coach

Syracuse '80 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

Randy Edsall enters his third season as head football coach at the University of Maryland, leading a program that continues to make great strides both on and off the field.

Edsall was named the 34th coach in Maryland football history in January 2011. Since taking over, Edsall and his staff have placed a great emphasis on recruiting the local Maryland/Washington, D.C. market which is heavily recruited by schools across the nation and is considered a football hotbed. The result of this focus was the signing of 22 athletes, 14 from the area. Edsall and his staff have recruited classes ranked in the top 35 nationally by Rivals the last two years, including the 31st overall in 2013.

"Randy Edsall is an excellent football coach. He teaches and believes in the physical nature of the game. He is a great recruiter and his success at Connecticut earned his program compliments and recognition from college football's finest coaches. Randy is a very positive thinking person, and perhaps his greatest attribute is his persistence. He will persevere and he will win at Maryland and he will do it the right way!"
- Tom Coughlin, NY Giants head coach

In addition, under Edsall's command and following a pattern he started at the University of Connecticut, the football program's Athletic Progress Rate (APR) moved significantly upward after a five year decline. The football team's APR, which measures eligibility and retention, increased its multi-year score from 922 (2009-2010) to 937 and its single year score from 905 to 948. The football team's cumulative GPA has risen each semester since Edsall took over the program.

The Maryland program continued to improve in 2012, a year in which they played 15 true freshmen (third most in the Football Bowl Subdivision). The defensive unit finished the season ranked second in the ACC and 21st in the nation in total defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally against the run (129.3 ypg) and third in the ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg). The Terrapins also held five of their opponents under 100 rushing yards.

On the offensive side of the ball, injuries forced the Terrapins to play four different quarterbacks, including three true freshmen and a converted linebacker. Edsall and his staff utilized the talents of a young group of offensive standouts. True freshman Stefon Diggs led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc), the most ever by a Maryland freshman. Diggs also caught six touchdowns and was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times. Maryland also rotated carries among a talented group of backs, with four different players earning a start. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross set career highs, rushing for at least 100 yards in two of the final three games, including 141 yards in the final contest at North Carolina.

Prior to coming to College Park, Edsall, a native of nearby Glen Rock, Pa, spent twelve seasons coaching the University of Connecticut Huskies where he took the program from FCS (formerly I-AA) to five bowl games, including a BCS bowl. The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year led the Huskies to a 33-19 record over his last four seasons there, including two bowl victories and his leadership resulted in UConn being the first program ever to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in just seven seasons.

Edsall departed UConn as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). He was a two-time recipient of the prestigious Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston (2007, 2010).

During his tenure at UConn, the Huskies finished in the top twenty nationally for total offense twice (2003, 2004) and total defense three times (2002, 200r5, 2008). Under Edsall's guidance Connecticut defeated teams from the ACC, Big Ten, Big East, Big 12, Conference USA and the SEC.

In 2007, as Edsall continued to grow the program to prominence, the Huskies earned their first-ever national rankings peaking at #13 in the BCS standings in November. That year they became just the second Big East team ever to go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams at home that were ranked in the top ten during the season.

Off the field, just as he is doing at Maryland, Edsall's teams were strong in the classroom as well. In 2007, 2008 and 2009 UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate. In 2003 UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90% of its football players and in 2005, it was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70% and win a bowl game.

When Edsall was named the head coach at Connecticut on December 21, 1998 he brought 19 years of coaching experience with him. He earned the job at Connecticut after a year as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech where the 14th ranked Yellow Jackets went 9-2.

Prior to his season at Georgia Tech Edsall spend three seasons under two-time Super Bowl Champion coach Tom Coughlin as the secondary coach for the NFL Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville the expansion Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. The former quarterback at Syracuse started as a graduate assistant (1980-82) before joining the staff in 1983 overseeing the running backs under head coach Dick MacPherson. Edsall oversaw the running backs for three years (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to defense.

He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-90 and during that time the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense. After the 1990 season Tom Coughlin, then coach of Boston College, hired Edsall to coach the defensive backs at BC.

Edsall was a three-year letter winner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.) and was an all-state selection in all three sports as a senior which led to induction into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

At Syracuse he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and a master's degree in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall and his wife, Eileen met at Syracuse University where she was a basketball and volleyball standout who was later inducted into the Syracuse University Hall of Fame. They have a daughter, Alexi and a son, Corey.

Mike Locksley

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Towson '92 ▪ Eighth Year at Maryland

Mike Locksley returns for his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and his eighth overall season at Maryland.

A native of Washington, D.C., Locksley returned home to rejoin the Terrapins after the 2011 season. He was an assistant coach at Maryland for six seasons (1997-2002).

In his first season back in College Park, Locksley coached five different quarterbacks, including three true freshmen and a converted linebacker.

Despite the constant shuffling at quarterback, Locksley found a way to get the ball in his playmakers hands. True freshman Stefon Diggs led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc), the most ever by a Maryland freshman. Diggs also caught six touchdowns and was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times.

A veteran coach with over 20 years of experience, Locksley previously spent four seasons (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-2011) as head coach at the University of New Mexico.

He possesses a well-rounded coaching resume, having tutored every offensive or defensive position except offensive line.

Locksley is also known for strong recruiting skills. He was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top 10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

Locksley's first stint as an offensive coordinator was quite a success. He took over an Illinois offense which was ranked No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) and gradually improved it to a top 20 unit.

The Illini went from No. 72 nationally in total offense (354.6 ypg) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 ypg) in 2008. They led the Big Ten in rushing in 2006 (188.8 ypg) and 2007 (256.7 ypg), and in passing (269.3 ypg) in 2008. The rushing attack was twice ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007).

Under Locksley's tutelage, quarterback Juice Williams passed for more than 6,000 yards and rushed for over 2,000 in his three years under Locksley and was a 2008 All-Big Ten choice. Williams set school records for rushing yards by a quarterback and single-season total offense. Williams led the Big Ten in passing (3,173 yards) and total offense (3,892 yards) in 2008 and was third in passing efficiency (136.15 rating).

The 2007 Illinois offense became just the third unit in school history to surpass the 5,000-yard mark and first to top 3,000 rushing yards. Led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Rashard Mendenhall, the Illini led the league in rushing for the second straight year and finished fifth nationally at 256.7 yards a game.

Mendenhall, who averaged 129 rushing yards, was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2008 NFL Draft.

While at Illinois, Locksley helped develop running back Mikel Leshoure, who was taken in the second round (57th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. He also mentored offensive linemen Jon Asamoah and Jeff Allen, who were both drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs. Asamoah was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft, and Allen was taken in the second round (44th overall) in 2012.

Illinois played USC in the 2008 Rose Bowl and finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press following a 9-4 season.

In 2006, Locksley led an Illinois offense that paced the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, averaging 188.8 yards. He tutored versatile running back Pierre Thomas, a two-time honorable mention all-league pick, who wrapped up his career as the No. 6 all-time rusher at Illinois and has gone on to star with the New Orleans Saints.

Locksley helped put the players in place to aid in Illinois' resurgence. He was named the No. 5 recruiter in the Big Ten and ranked among the top 20 in the nation by Sports Illustrated. In 2005, Rivals.com named him a top-25 recruiter.

Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Locksley worked two seasons for Zook at Florida, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. Both of those seasons ended with bowl-game appearances.

In 2004, Gators' running back Ciatrick Fason led the SEC and ranked 19th in the NCAA in rushing (105.6 yards a game) en route to second-team all-league honors.

That season, Florida finished first in the SEC in both passing yards (271 per game) and total offense (426.9 ypg) and was second in scoring (31.8 points per game).

The year prior, three Gator rushers logged more than 500 rushing yards and each averaged at least 5.5 yards per carry.

Locksley had success both recruiting and grooming players in his first stint in College Park. He oversaw the running backs during his entire tenure, including the final five as recruiting coordinator.

Three different running backs - Chris Downs, Bruce Perry and LaMont Jordan - gained more than 1,000 yards and were named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jordan spearheaded a 1999 rushing attack that led the ACC (234.1 ypg) and ranked 12th in the nation. Jordan was the runner-up for 1997 ACC Rookie of the Year and finished as a Doak Walker semifinalist. He went to be selected in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft and totaled more than 3,700 yards for four teams in a nine-year professional career.

Perry was the 2001 ACC Offensive Player of the Year, a first for a Maryland running back, and the first sophomore to win the award. Both Perry and Jordan earned All-America honors under Locksley's watch.

Locksley played safety at Towson University, where he was the team's defensive MVP as a senior in 1991. He finished his career ranked 19th on the school's all-time tackles list and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.

He got his coaching career started the following year at Towson, overseeing the defensive backs coach and special teams unit. He went on to coach at the U.S. Naval Prep School (1993-94), Pacific (1995) and Army (1996).

He helped Army reach the 1996 Independence Bowl and has coached in five other postseason games.

Locksley and his wife, Kia, have four children: three sons (Mike, Jr., Meiko and Kai) and one daughter (Kori).

Brian Stewart

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs

Northern Arizona '95 ▪ Second Year at Maryland

Brian Stewart is in his second season as Maryland's defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In his first season in College Park, Stewart oversaw a remarkable turnaround of the defense. His unit finished the 2012 season ranked second in the ACC and 21st in the nation in total defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally against the run (129.3 ypg) and third in the ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg). The Terrapins also held five of their opponents under 100 rushing yards, a feat that only happened once in 2011.

A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart came to Maryland after a two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll.

Stewart oversaw a Cougars defense which was one of the best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second - 67 percent), interceptions (t-third - 21), tackles for loss (sixth - 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th - 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th - 111.75 rating).

After taking hold of Stewart's aggressive 3-4 scheme, Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) in 2011.

Stewart has a history of grooming players and a pair of senior linebackers flourished in his defense.

Marcus McGraw totaled 141 stops in 2011 to set a school record for career tackles (509) and Sammy Brown finished the year with 30 tackles for a loss (a school record), including 13.5 sacks (second on the all-time Houston list). Brown led the FBS in TFL (2.1 per game) en route to All-America honors.

Another reason for Houston's defensive improvement was the play of cornerback D.J. Hayden. The junior-college transfer was named the 2011 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year after posting 11 pass breakups, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. Hayden was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the first round (12th overall) of 2013 NFL Draft.

Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas, where he guided the Cowboys to two top-10 rankings in fewest yards allowed. While in the NFL, Stewart helped his players make 14 Pro Bowl appearances.

The Cowboys led the league with 59 sacks in 2008 and ranked third in that category in 2007 (46). An NFL-best five Cowboys defenders (DeMarcus Ware, Roy Williams, Greg Ellis, Ken Hamlin and Terence Newman) earned Pro Bowl selections after the 2007 campaign.

Stewart spent the 2009 season as a defensive special assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he coached the NFL's top cornerback interception tandem of Asante Samuel (nine) and Sheldon Brown (five). Samuel led the league in interceptions in 2009 and was named to the 2010 Pro Bowl.

Stewart served as the secondary coach with the San Diego Chargers for three seasons (2004-06). During his final year, the Chargers posted a 14-2 record and ranked seventh in the NFL in scoring defense (18.9 points allowed per game), while cornerback Quentin Jammer had a career-high four interceptions.

Stewart began his NFL career as an assistant defensive backs coach with the Houston Texans (2002-03).

Before joining the professional ranks, Stewart spent his first nine years of coaching at the collegiate level.

He served as the defensive backs coach at Syracuse in 2001 when he helped lead the Orange to a 10-3 overall record and No. 14 ranking in final Associated Press poll.

Stewart also coached the secondary at San Jose State (1997-98) and Missouri (1999-2000).

During his tenure at SJSU, his unit tied for seventh nationally with 20 interceptions in 1997, while the Spartans' pass defense ranked 37th nationally, its highest finish in the 1990s.

Stewart also mentored Missouri all-league free safety Julian Jones, who had a Big 12-best six interceptions in 1999.

A former college cornerback and free safety with Northern Arizona and Santa Monica City College, Stewart earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from NAU in 1995.

His first coaching position came as offensive assistant at Cal Poly, where he worked with the wide receivers in 1993 and running backs in 1994, when the Mustangs won the American West Conference title.

The native of West Covina, Calif., also coached tight ends at Northern Arizona University (1995) and was a graduate assistant at Missouri (1996).

Stewart is involved with a number of off-the-field endeavors.

He is the president of the Urban Football Coaches Association which conducts an annual coaching clinic in Los Angeles.

He attended Nogales High School in La Puente, Calif., and annually conducts a free, one-day football camp there for kids 7-19. He also serves as host for ASR - a sports retreat for minority coaches and administrators.

Stewart and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Leila, Mya and Zara.

Tom Brattan

Offensive Line

Delaware '72 ▪ 13th Year at Maryland

Tom Brattan, who is the longest-tenured member of the Maryland coaching staff, is in his 13th season as the Terps' offensive line coach. He boasts more than 37 years of coaching experience, including 31 at the collegiate level.

The Maryland offensive line has been one of the team's strengths since 2001, producing seven first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference performers and a handful of other players honored by both the league and national media, including Paul Pinegar in 2010 (honorable mention All-ACC).

Brattan has also prepared a number of players for the next level as six of his former Terp pupils were on NFL rosters last season, including Bruce Campbell, a fourth-round choice of Oakland in the 2010 NFL Draft.

In 2008, Edwin Williams was a first team All-ACC selection, while Jaimie Thomas and Scott Burley were honorable mention choices. Williams and Thomas both went on to careers in the NFL.

In 2007, Andrew Crummey, another professional, was tabbed a second team All-American, while Burley earned all-conference honors.

Over the last seven seasons, Brattan's offensive line opened holes for four of the top backs in school history.

Davin Meggett ended his career last season ranked seventh on the Terps career rushing yards list (2,411).

In 2008, Da'Rel Scott rushed for 1,133 yards, the seventh-highest single-season total in school history. Scott ended his career in 2010 ranked seventh (now eighth) on the Maryland career rushing list.

One year before that, Lance Ball completed his career ranked fourth in school history in rushing yards and Keon Lattimore ended his tenure No. 14 on the rushing list (now 16th).

In 2006, Crummey and Stephon Heyer were recognized as part of the All-ACC team. Heyer also earned a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team for his performance in the Champs Sports Bowl vs. All-American and 2007 first-round NFL Draft choice Anthony Spencer of Purdue.

The 2006 unit allowed Ball and Lattimore to each rush for over 700 yards and yielded just 19 sacks, the second-lowest total in the ACC.

In 2005, he mentored Jared Gaither to third team freshman All-America honors. Brattan also oversaw a young line to a season that helped Ball earn second team All-ACC recognition at tailback, all despite losing its top player (Heyer) prior to the season. The season was reminiscent of the 2003 campaign when an injury-plagued unit still produced the nation's 24th-best rushing offense, allowed just 20 sacks and had a first team All-ACC performer in C.J. Brooks.

In previous seasons, the Maryland line had similar success. In 2002, Brattan had four of five linemen earn All-ACC recognition while the team had the league's second-rated rushing attack (198.8 ypg) and scoring offense (32.2 ppg) while allowing 21 sacks in 14 games.

In his first year (2001), the Terps averaged 35.5 points per game, allowed just 18 sacks and paved the way for a 1,242-yard season from Doak Walker finalist Bruce Perry. In doing so, Melvin Fowler earned All-ACC recognition en route to being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round and Todd Wike earning a first team all-league nod.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Brattan spent two years (1999-2000) at Stanford, where he served as the Cardinal's line coach in charge of centers and guards. Stanford went 8-4 in 1999 en route to a Rose Bowl bid. The 1999 Stanford offense scored at least 31 points in all but three games and hit the 50-point plateau three times. That year, Brattan's offensive line allowed just 15 sacks despite 385 passing attempts (one sack for every 27 attempts).

Brattan took his first full-time job at the collegiate level at William & Mary in 1983 as an offensive backfield coach. After just one season, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and served the remainder of his tenure (1984-1991) in that capacity. He also worked with the offensive line at William & Mary. In that time, the Tribe advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs on three occasions. From 1986 to 1990, William & Mary earned national rankings in three seasons (No. 9 in 1986; No. 13 in 1989; No. 7 in 1990). The success was largely a product of Brattan's offensive design as his unit ranked in the top 20 in offense in 1985 and 1986, while it had the top-rated attack in Division I-AA for the 1990 season and the sixth-best in `91.

Brattan took his success at the I-AA level to his next job, Northwestern, where he resided from 1992-98 as offensive line coach. In Brattan's first three years at the school, the Wildcats continued to struggle, pushing their streak of seasons without a winning mark to 23.

Then in 1995, the Wildcats were in the national spotlight as they came seemingly out of nowhere to win the Big Ten championship for the first time in 47 years and advance to the Rose Bowl where they ultimately fell to USC. They finished the year ranked No. 7 in the nation with a 10-2 mark. Brattan's line allowed just eight sacks all year while helping propel Darnell Autry to a new school rushing record. Northwestern finished fifth nationally in rushing.

The Wildcats posted a combined 15-1 league record in 1995 and 1996, taking the Big Ten crown both years after having won just five league games in the previous three years. In 1996, they earned a bid to play Tennessee in the Citrus Bowl.

Brattan got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Delaware, in 1972. After one year in Newark, he took his first full-time coaching post at Highland Springs (Va.) High School as an offensive line coach. After three years (1973-75) at Highland Springs, he moved back to his home state of Delaware and took his first head coaching job at McKean High School in 1977. He spent one year at McKean - the same high school that helped produce Maryland legend Randy White - before moving back to Virginia and taking over as the head coach at Lloyd C. Bird High School. After serving at Bird in 1978, he returned to Highland Springs -- this time as a head coach -- for his final four years (1979-1982) at the prep level.

A native of Newark, Del., Brattan is a 1972 graduate of his hometown school where he earned his bachelor's degree in history and later earned his master's degree in education in 1977. He was a member of the Blue Hen football team, lettering in 1971. He and his wife, Anne, have three children -- Kristen, Kate and Megan.

Keith Dudzinski

Inside Linebackers

New Haven '91 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

A long-time defensive coordinator, Keith Dudzinski is in his third season as a Maryland assistant coach, overseeing the inside linebackers.

In 2012, Dudzinski's two starting inside linebackers (Demetrius Hartsfield and Cole Farrand) tied for the team lead with 78 tackles, with Hartsfield earning second-team All-ACC honors. The Maryland defensive unit finished the season ranked second in the ACC and 21st nationally in overall defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally in run defense (129.3 ypg) and sixth in the ACC in scoring (27.2 ppg).

Prior to coming to Maryland, Dudzinski served as the defensive coordinator at UMass-Amherst the previous seven years, his second stop at the school and second career stint as a coordinator. During his tenure, the Minutemen maintained one of the top defensive units in the nation.

UMass finished among the top 20 in total defense three times (third in 2005; 20th in 2006; 13th in 2007) and the Minutemen were also first nationally in scoring defense in 2005 and fifth in 2006.

Dudzinski has coached a number of standout performers at his five stops as a collegiate coach.

Hartsfield ranked second in the ACC and fifth nationally in tackles (12.0 per game) in 2011 en route to honorable mention all-league honors.

In addition, L.A Goree earned freshman All-America honors in 2011 after starting at both the Mike and Will positions, and averaging 5.0 tackles per game.

UMass linebacker Tyler Holmes was a finalist for the 2010 Buck Buchanan Award, honoring the top defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In 2009, Holmes had a tremendous season as he was named All-Colonial Athletic Association after racking up 100 tackles. In 2008, guided by Dudzinski, UMass had one of the top linebacker corps in the nation led by first team all-conference selection Josh Jennings who racked up 90 tackles.

The 2007 season was no different as the Minutemen led the CAA in total defense (309.6 yards per game), scoring defense (19.2 points per game), sacks, tackles for loss and passing efficiency defense. The UMass defense had five first-team All-CAA selections that year including linebackers Jason Hatchell and Charles Walker, who both worked directly with Dudzinski.

Hatchell was an All-American and Buchanan Award candidate in 2007 after piling up 115 tackles. He finished his career with 360 stops, sixth in UMass history. Walker had a team-high 116 tackles in 2007 and finished ninth in career stops (340).

UMass' defense was impressive throughout the 2006 season as the Minutemen advanced to the National Championship game. The Minutemen led the nation in scoring defense until that championship game, finishing fifth, giving up 13.3 points per game. The Minutemen finished in the top 20 nationally in nine defensive statistics.

Dudzinski worked directly with three all-league linebackers in Hatchell, Walker and Brad Anderson. All three players racked up more than 100 tackles on the season. Hatchell, also an All-American that season, emerged as one of the nation's top tacklers after finishing second in the conference with 134 stops.

The Minutemen had a league-best 20 all-conference honorees in 2006, including eight on defense.

During his second season in Amherst, Mass., Dudzinski oversaw a defense which led the nation in fewest points allowed (13.3 ppg). The Minutemen also led the Atlantic 10 in five defensive categories and ranked in the nation's top five in four. UMass topped the conference in total yardage defense, passing defense, pass efficiency defense, net punting and scoring defense.

Working with the linebackers, he coached two A-10 second-team honorees in two-time team captain Serge Tikum and Hatchell, who had a team-high 107 tackles. The defense also included two-time consensus first-team All-American Shannon James and all-league selections defensive end Keron Williams and safety James Ihedigbo.

In 2004, Dudzinski headed up a defense which featured consensus first-team All-American Shannon James, who led the nation in interceptions.

Dudzinski spent two seasons (2002-2003) as linebackers coach at Northeastern, including defensive coordinator his final year.

He directed the career of first team All-American and two-time first team All-Atlantic 10 selection Liam Ezekiel, who made 140 total tackles in 2003.

During the 2002 season, the Huskies allowed opponents only 299.3 total yards and 16.0 points per game. During the 2002 campaign, Dudzinski helped lead Northeastern to a record of 10-3, a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference title and the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Playoffs.

During his first stint as an assistant coach at UMass under Mark Whipple, Dudzinski served in a variety of roles on the defensive side of the ball. He coached the secondary in 2001, the linebackers in 1999 and 2000, and the defensive line in 1998. He also oversaw the special teams his final three seasons.

Dudzinski guided the career of Kole Ayi, who was a two-time first team All-American (1999-2000) and two-time Buck Buchanan Award finalist.

Dudzinski first joined the UMass staff after spending four years at Brown under Whipple as the defensive line coach for the Bears. Dudzinski helped the Brown defense hold opponents to just 194 total points during the 1997 season (19.4 points per game) -- the fewest number of points allowed by the school in 10 years. While at Brown, he helped develop two-time first-team All-Ivy defensive tackle Brendan Finneran (1996 and 1997).

Prior to coming to Brown, Dudzinski was a defensive assistant at New Haven under Whipple for three years (1991-93), working with the outside linebackers. He has also worked as an assistant coach at Kolbe Cathedral High School in Bridgeport, Conn., and St. Joseph's High School in Trumbull, Conn.

Dudzinski is a 1991 graduate of the University of New Haven, where he was an All-New England linebacker and team captain as a senior. He and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Jack, and two daughters, Mary Kathryn and Elizabeth.

John Dunn

Tight Ends/Recruiting Coordinator

North Carolina '05 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

John Dunn is in his third season with Maryland serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Under Dunn's leadership, Maryland has signed a top-35 recruiting class each of the past two years, with both classes featuring the Gatorade Player of the Year in Washington, D.C. (Yannick Ngakoue in 2013 and Albert Reid in 2012) and a five-star recruit (Deon Long in 2013 and Stefon Diggs in 2012).

In his first two seasons at Maryland, Dunn tutored Matt Furstenburg, who compiled 46 catches for 554 yards (12.0 avg.) and four touchdowns. Furstenburg signed with the Baltimore Ravens during the 2013 offseason.

Before coming to Maryland, Dunn spent the previous three seasons as a graduate offensive assistant with LSU.

At LSU, Dunn helped coach the offensive line and quarterbacks and ran meetings with those position groups. Dunn also had primary responsibility for the assimilation of the playbook and all computer drawings, as well as all practice scripts and game plans.

In 2010, the Tigers went 11-2 and defeated Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, their fifth victory over a ranked opponent that season. In his three years at LSU, the Tigers had a 28-11 record and went 2-1 in bowl games.

Dunn also assisted with all on-campus recruiting for the Tigers, as they pulled in the No. 11 class in 2008, the No. 1 class in 2009 and the No. 8 class in 2010, according to ESPN.com's rankings.

Dunn walked on at North Carolina in 2001 and played there until 2003 before his career was cut short by a neck injury. He served as a student assistant while finishing his undergraduate studies. In his second season on the Tar Heel staff Dunn became a quality control assistant and then worked as a graduate coaching assistant on the offensive side of the ball his final two years (2006-07) in Chapel Hill.

At Carolina, Dunn helped tutor wide receiver Hakeem Nicks who finished the `07 season ranked in the top 35 nationally in receptions (6.2) and receiving yards per game (79.83) while earning All-ACC first team honors. Nicks was taken 29th overall by the New York Giants in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Dunn played quarterback and tight end for the Tar Heels, lettering in 2003. He is married to the former Lindsay Moffitt, and they have one son, Carter.

Greg Gattuso

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

Penn State '83 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

The former head coach of Duquesne (1992-2004), Greg Gattuso is in his third year as the defensive line coach at Maryland after spending the previous six seasons at the University of Pittsburgh.

Gattuso was promoted to assistant head coach in February 2012 and assists Randy Edsall in some day-to-day duties. While at Maryland, Gattuso has tutored two of the most productive players on the defensive unit in Joe Vellano and A.J. Francis.

Under Gattuso's watch, Vellano was a first team All-America pick by Athlon, a second team Walter Camp All-American and a second team Associated Press All-American in 2011. He was also a two-time All-ACC performer (2011 and 2012) and signed with the New England Patriots during the 2013 offseason.

As a senior, Francis had the best season of his career starting all 12 games at defensive end, helping anchor a defense which ranked second in the ACC and 21st nationally. Francis was second in the conference with three fumble recoveries and was named honorable mention All-ACC by both the coaches and media. Francis signed with the Miami Dolphins at the conclusion of his collegiate career.

In 2012, Gattuso's unit served as the anchor of a defense which ranked second in the ACC and 26th nationally against the run, allowing 129.3 yards per game.

Gattuso has a long history of success, winning a national title in 1982 as a defensive lineman at Penn State, leading Duquesne to a 97-32 record during his head-coaching tenure and building Pittsburgh's defensive line into one of the best in the nation as an assistant head coach. He has also developed a name as a top recruiter, having hauled in a top-10 class while serving as recruiting coordinator at Pittsburgh.

During his time at Pittsburgh, Gattuso turned the Panthers' defensive line into one of the team's major strengths. The last two seasons, the line was one of the top sack producers in the nation.

Brandon Lindsey (10.0) and Jabaal Sherard (9.0) both ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks during the 2010 regular season and Pittsburgh led the nation in that category in 2009 (3.6 per game).

Sheard was the 2010 Big East Defensive Player of the Year, the second straight season Gattuso coached the award winner. Pitt defensive linemen Greg Romeus and Mick Williams shared the award in 2009.

Three starters on Pitt's defensive front were honored on the 2009 All-Big East Team, as tackle Gus Mustakas earned second-team honors.

Gattuso initially joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2005. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated 10th in the nation by Scout.com, 16th by ESPN.com and 21st by Rivals.com. He began coaching the defensive line in 2006 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2008.

Prior to his time at Pitt, Gattuso had a successful 12-year stint as head coach at Duquesne University, where he built the Dukes into one of the elite I-AA football programs in the nation. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances and captured the 2003 consensus Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

The Western Pennsylvania native was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the conference during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head coaching post the following year.

From 1989-1991, he served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

During his playing career, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season at Seton-LaSalle and was a two-time All-East defensive lineman at Penn State. He was a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team and graduated in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

Gattuso and his wife Colleen have two daughters, Jacqueline and Kaitlin.

Lee Hull

Wide Receivers

Holy Cross '88 ▪ Sixth Year at Maryland

In his sixth season coaching wide receivers at Maryland, Lee Hull continues to oversee some of the most productive players on the Terrapins' roster.

In his first season in College Park, Hull helped prepare first-round NFL Draft pick Darrius Heyward-Bey for the next level and oversaw a unit which featured senior standouts Isaiah Williams (Oakland Raiders) and Danny Oquendo.

Under Hull's guidance, Torrey Smith was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer. Smith posted 67 receptions for 1,055 receiving yards and a school-record 12 touchdown catches in 2010. Smith was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft, making it two Terrapin receivers taken in the first two rounds over a three-season span.

Hull has also helped developed LaQuan Williams (Baltimore Ravens), Tony Logan (New England Patriots) and Quintin McCree (Winnipeg Blue Bombers) who went on to careers in professional football after leaving College Park.

Hull's latest pupil, Kevin Dorsey, surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark in 2012, finishing his career at Maryland with 1,088 yards. Dorsey was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

In 2012, Hull also tutored freshman Stefon Diggs, who led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc) and six touchdowns. Diggs' 848 receiving yards were the seventh-highest single-season total in school history and were tops among freshmen in the ACC. Diggs also totaled 20 carries for 114 yards, as well as completing an eight-yard touchdown pass. Diggs totaled 1,896 all-purpose yards, which is the second-highest single-season total in school history and the most by a freshman. On the season he was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times and finished second in the voting for ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year by the coaches.

Hull also has experience coaching other positions. He tutored running backs his first two seasons at Oregon State and wide receivers the last three. He coached three OSU All-Americans, including a pair of wideouts, and was a part of four bowl wins.

In 2006, he coached Sammie Stroughter to All-America status in one of Oregon State's best seasons. The Beavers posted a 10-4 record, second-best in school history, including a win over Missouri in the Sun Bowl. That season, Stroughter led the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 10th in the country in receiving yards per game (92.4).

Stroughter was on the watch list for the 2007 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the top receiver in the nation. He went on to be selected in the 2009 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay.

In Hull's first season in charge of OSU wide receivers, Mike Hass ended his stellar career as a first-team All-America selection and the winner of the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. Hass posted the third-highest receiving yards total (3,924) in league history. He is currently a member of the Seattle Seahawks.

Hull also coached current St. Louis Rams' running back Steven Jackson during the 2003 season. Jackson was a first-team All-Pac-10 and third-team All-America choice as a junior, his final season at OSU. He was a first-round draft choice in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his five seasons at Oregon State, Hull spent five years (1998-2002) at his alma mater, the College of the Holy Cross. He coached linebackers for one season before becoming wide receivers coach, as well as overseeing the kickoff coverage and kickoff return units. He also went on to become the passing game coordinator.

Hull was a standout wide receiver at Holy Cross from 1984-87, playing under former Maryland coach Mark Duffner his final two seasons. The Crusaders posted a 21-1 record his last two years and were ranked No. 1 in Division I-AA in 1987. Holy Cross also won the Colonial League title and the Lambert Cup that season. He was a preseason All-America choice as a junior.

He went on to play professionally with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL. Hull spent 1990-92 with Winnipeg where he was coached by Mike Riley in his first season. Riley was the head coach at Oregon State during Hull's five-year tenure. The Blue Bombers won the 1990 Grey Cup. He also played for Toronto in 1992.

Hull was also a free-agent signee of the New England Patriots in 1998.

Prior to joining Holy Cross, he coached at the prep level in Massachusetts for five years. He was offensive coordinator at South High School in Worcester, Mass., for three years (1992-94) and the passing game coordinator at Auburn High School in 1995. He returned to South High in 1996 as head coach.

During his coaching career, Hull has participated in a number of internships. In 1999 he interned in the CFL. In 2000 and 2001 he took part in the NFL's Minority Internship Program. In addition, he attended the 2007 Minority Coaches Forum in Chandler, Ariz.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Holy Cross in 1988 and a master's in secondary education from Worcester State in 1995.

He had a stellar high school career as both a football player and track performer.

A native of Vineland, N.J., Hull lettered twice as a wide receiver for Vineland High School. He was selected All-Cape League, first-team All-South Jersey, first-team All-New Jersey Group-4, honorable mention all-state and the Vineland Student-Athlete of the Year. He was a long jumper and ran the 400 meters.

Hull and his wife, Stacey, have two sons, Alexander and Jordan, and one daughter, Laila.

Lyndon Johnson

Outside Linebackers

Connecticut '92 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

After spending 12 seasons in a variety of roles on head coach Randy Edsall's staff at Connecticut, Lyndon Johnson is in his third season at Maryland, where he oversees the outside linebackers.

Under Johnson's watch in 2012, Darin Drakeford tied for the team lead with sixth sacks, a total that ranked him in the top 10 in the conference. In 11 games during 2012 season, Drakeford totaled 49 tackles (27 solo), 9.5 tackles for loss, two passes broken up and two forced fumbles.

Last season the Maryland defensive unit ranked second in the ACC and 21st nationally in overall defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally in run defense (129.3 ypg), third in ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg) and sixth in the ACC in scoring (27.2 ppg).

The UConn graduate coached tight ends and special teams his first three seasons (1999-2001) with the Huskies.

He became Edsall's recruiting coordinator from 2002-05 before moving back to special teams for his final four seasons.

Johnson handled the outside-linebacker position throughout his final nine years in Storrs, Conn.

Johnson had the top kick returner in the nation in 2010 in Nick Williams who averaged 35.3 yards per attempt and had two touchdowns. As a team the Huskies ranked third nationally in kickoff returns, bolstering a run to the Big East Championship and a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskies were ninth in the FBS in kickoff returns in 2009 (25.8 yards per return) while setting a school record with three returns for touchdown, and Robert McClain ranked 18th nationally in punt returns (12.6 ypr).

UConn's special teams also aided its run to the 2007 Big East Championship. The team returned two punts for touchdowns and also returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. The season saw Tony Ciaravino score an even 100 points, a record for a UConn kicker, and punter Desi Cullen record a 40.7 yard average, fifth-best in UConn history.

Cullen concluded his career in 2009 and had the career record for punting average with 41.1 yards per punt and set the single-season record at 42.8.

During the 2007 and 2008 seasons, Johnson coached linebacker Scott Lutrus to postseason honors. Lutrus was a first-team freshman All-America selection after the 2007 campaign and an All-Big East pick in 2008.

Johnson began his coaching career at Brien McMahon High School in Norwalk, Conn., where he spent four seasons (1993-96) including the final two as defensive coordinator.

He made his collegiate coaching debut at Sacred Heart in Bridgeport, Conn., where he served as defensive coordinator in 1997, before moving on to Fordham to coach the defensive line in 1998.

Johnson, a four-year letterwinner for UConn from 1989-1992, started all 33 games on the offensive line over his final three seasons. He served as team captain in 1991 and was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player that year. He was a second team All-Yankee Conference pick in 1989 and a second team All-ECAC selection in 1990.

A native of Norwalk, Conn., Johnson received his degree in sociology from UConn in 1992. He and his wife Cynthia have two sons, Taren and Trace.

Andre Powell

Special Teams Coordinator/Running Backs

Indiana '89 ▪ Third Year at Maryland

A veteran of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Andre Powell is in his third season with Maryland.

Powell oversees the Terrapin running backs. He also assumed the duties of special teams coordinator in February 2012.

In 2012, Powell started four different running backs. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross set career-highs rushing for at least 100 yards in two of the final three games, including 141 yards in the final contest at North Carolina.

Powell also oversaw an explosive special teams unit. Under Powell's direction, true freshman Stefon Diggs excelled as one of the most dynamic returners in the conference. Diggs totaled 1,896 all-purpose yards, which is the second-highest single-season total in school history and the most by a freshmen. His 172.4 all-purpose yards per game ranked second in the ACC. He scored touchdowns receiving, on kickoff returns and throwing. On the season he was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times and Specialist of the Week twice. He finished second in the voting for ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year by the coaches and was named a second-team specialist.

Powell came to Maryland after spending the previous four seasons at Clemson where he coached running backs and coordinated the special teams his final three years.

With over 20 years of experience coaching college football, Powell is making his fourth stop in the ACC. In addition to his four seasons with the Tigers, Powell coached at Virginia (1996-2000) and North Carolina (2001-06).

At Clemson, he coached unanimous first-team All-American running back and return specialist C.J. Spiller, helping him become the No. 9 overall selection of the Buffalo Bills in the 2010 NFL Draft. Spiller was the ACC Player of the Year in 2009 and finished his career No. 2 in NCAA FBS history in all-purpose running.

Spiller ranked in the top 15 in the FBS in kickoff returns in each of his final three years (2007-09) and became the first running back in ACC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season (2009). He also set the FBS record for career kickoff returns for touchdowns (seven) and tied the record for total kick returns for a score (eight).

Powell also tutored All-ACC running back James Davis in 2007 and 2008, who along with Spiller, is among the top three rushers in Clemson history.

Along with the success of his running backs, Powell oversaw a kickoff-return unit that finished in the top 25 nationally his first three seasons and in the top 40 in 2010. In 2009, the Tigers ranked seventh in the country in punt returns, including a pair of touchdowns.

In addition, Clemson was 113th in the nation in kickoff return yardage defense the year before Powell arrived in Death Valley. The first year he took over the unit (2008) the Tigers were No. 47 nationally and the following season they reached No. 24 in the country.

That success translated to consistent winning as the Tigers went to a bowl game every year Powell was at Clemson and finished in the top 25 of the final AP poll in 2007 and 2009.

While at North Carolina, Powell coached a future NFL standout in running back Willie Parker, as well as Ronnie McGill, who finished his career 10th in school history with 2,393 rushing yards.

Powell also coached special teams his final three seasons at UNC. He steered the Tar Heels' kickoff return unit to a No. 7 national ranking in 2005 and second in the ACC in 2006.

Prior to his time at North Carolina, Powell spent five seasons with the Cavaliers where he coached the running backs in 1996, the wide receivers from 1997-99 and the running backs again in 2000. At Virginia, he tutored future NFL players Tiki Barber, Germaine Crowell, Thomas Jones, Charles Kirby, Pat Washington and Terrence Wilkins.

Powell also had two different stints as an assistant coach at Army (1991, 95), along with graduate assistant positions at Indiana (1989) and South Carolina (1990). He coached running backs for the first time at Virginia Military Institute (1992) and spent two seasons (1993-94) coaching the same unit at Rhode Island.

A native of Lockhart, S.C., Powell played two seasons at Lees-McRae (1984-85) prior to earning two letters at Indiana where he was a member of two bowl teams (1986 All-American; 1988 Peach Bowl). He earned Indiana's Most Improved Player award during his senior season and was the lead blocker for 1,000-yard rusher Anthony Thompson that season.

Powell earned a bachelor's of science degree in health, physical education & recreation from Indiana in 1989. He and his wife Joann have a son, Andre II, and two daughters, Alayna and Mikala.

2012 GAME RECAPS

Game 1

Maryland 7
William & Mary 6
Sept. 1, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Justus Pickett ran for a 6-yard touchdown with 9:52 left in the fourth quarter, and Brad Craddock added the tie-breaking extra point to give Maryland a 7-6 victory over William & Mary in the season opener for both teams Saturday.

Maryland overcame a slow start against its Football Championship Subdivision opponent, which led most of the game before losing its opener for the 10th time in 11 years.

The Terrapins won despite turning the ball over four times and missing a short field goal.

Freshman quarterback Perry Hills, in his first collegiate start, completed 16 of 24 for 145 yards and directed the winning 10-play, 69-yard drive, but he threw three interceptions.

The Terrapins turned the ball over three times in the first quarter, when the Tribe took a 6-0 lead on two Drake Kuhn field goals.

Maryland missed a short field goal in the second quarter and left the field at halftime trailing 6-0.

Maryland's scoring drive came on its first possession of the fourth quarter and began after Kuhn missed a 48-yard field goal.

The Terrapins went 69 yards in 10 plays to get up Pickett's 6-yard scoring scamper around left end. The Terps converted two third-down plays on the drive, including a 22-yard pass from Hills to Kevin Dorsey on a third-and-8.

Hills went 3-for-4 passing for 41 yards on the drive and added an 8-yard scramble.

Maryland's defense, led by 13 stops by Demetrius Hartsfield and 11 by Joe Vellano, held the Tribe to 229 yards in total offense, no touchdowns in the game and no points in the final three quarters.

Game 2

Maryland 36
Temple 27
Sept. 8, 2012

PHILADELPHIA - Perry Hills threw two touchdowns and ran for one and Stefon Diggs had 135 all-purpose yards to help Maryland beat Temple 36-27 Saturday.

The Terps built a 26-3 lead by halftime on Hills' three touchdowns and a stingy defense. A week after holding William & Mary to 104 rushing yards, Maryland's front seven was even stronger, holding the Owls to 28 rushing yards in the first half and 52 in the game.

Still, Temple made a game out of it in a turnover-filled second half. The Terps lost three fumbles in the half, and Temple got within 29-27 on Chris Coyer's 35-yard touchdown pass to Jalen Fitzpatrick with 7:04 left to play.

But Maryland followed with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive led by Hills and running back Justus Pickett. Hills hit Diggs for a 38-yard gain on a third-and-11, and three plays later Pickett bulldozed in the end zone from seven yards out to seal it.

Maryland's defense set the tone early, with Joe Vellano forcing a fumble that Demetrius Hartsfield recovered on Temple's first offensive play of the game. A series later, Cole Farrand forced a fumble that A.J. Francis recovered.

That allowed Hills to throw his first collegiate touchdown - a beautiful 22-yarder to tight end Matt Furstenburg early in the second quarter, and later in the quarter a 32-yarder to Marcus Leak.

Game 3

Connecticut 24
Maryland 21
Sept. 15, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Stefon Diggs had 223 all-purpose yards, including a 29-yard touchdown catch, but Maryland's comeback attempt fell short as Connecticut defeated the Terps 24-21 Saturday.

Lyle McCombs rushed for 94 yards and a fourth-quarter touchdown to lead the Huskies. Scott McCummings, who also came in at quarterback occasionally, ran for a 3-yard score that gave the Huskies a 14-0 first-half lead.

That came after Nick Williams scored the game's first touchdown on a 58-yard punt return.

The Huskies outgained Maryland 148-80 in total yardage in the first half and controlled the ball for 18 minutes, 40 seconds. They also came up with timely plays, converting four of nine third-down situations to keep the Maryland offense off the field.

But Maryland's offense responded in the second quarter. A key play came on fourth-and-4 from the Connecticut 37, when quarterback Perry Hills completed an 18-yard pass to Diggs.

One play later, Wes Brown ran for a 19-yard touchdown, and Brad Craddock's extra point cut the lead to 14-7 with 10:24 remaining in the half.

Connecticut linebacker Yawin Smallwood sacked Hills and forced a third-quarter fumble that Angelo Pruitt recovered for the Huskies at the Maryland 23. They couldn't pick up a first down, but Chad Christen kicked a 34-yard field goal with 3:29 left in the quarter for a 17-7 lead.

After a 75-yard drive, Maryland made it 17-14 on the second play of the fourth quarter when Hills threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Stefon Diggs on third-and-10. The Terrapins' Marcus Leak tipped the pass and Diggs grabbed it for a touchdown to make it 17-14.

The Huskies answered on ztheir next possession, driving 76 yards to take a 24-14 lead on McCombs' 11-yard touchdown run, but Maryland again countered.

Diggs returned the ensuing kickoff 45 yards to setup great field position, and Hills led the Terps on a seven-play, 53-yard drive capped by his 10-yard touchdown run to make it 24-21 with 4:39 left.

After the defense forced a three-and-out and Maryland got the ball back following a Huskies punt, the Terps reached the Connecticut 39 before their drive stalled with 17 seconds left.

Game 4

Maryland 21
West Virginia 31

Sept. 22, 2012

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. - Freshman Perry Hills threw for a season-high 305 yards and three touchdowns, two to freshman Stefon Diggs, but Maryland fell to No. 8 West Virginia 31-21 on Saturday.

Maryland held the high-powered offense of West Virginia, which came in averaging 55.5 points per game and 612 yards per game, mostly in check.

Fourteen of the Mountaineers points came off Terrapin turnovers, including a 51-yard fumble return TD by Doug Rigg early in the first quarter. The Terps allowed 363 yards of total offense, had nine tackles for loss and allowed just 25 rushing yards on 25 attempts.

West Virginia's Geno Smith threw three touchdown passes to Tavon Austin, who had 13 catches for 179 yards. Austin and Diggs were the all-purpose stars of the game - Austin finished with 225 all-purpose yards and Diggs had 201.

Hills completed 20 of 29 passes with Diggs, Marcus Leak and Matt Furstenburg as his main targets. Diggs totaled 113 receiving yards, Leak had 69 and Furstenburg had 65.

After trailing 14-0 early, Hills threw in the flat to Diggs, who raced down the sideline 42 yards and leaped into the end zone for the score with 1:54 left in the first quarter. The Terps tied it on a 12-yard TD pass from Hills to Leak with 12:16 left in the second quarter.

West Virginia, though, scored the game's next 17 points to take a 31-14 lead. Hills capped the scoring on a 56-yard touchdown pass to Diggs with 7:25 left, but Maryland was unable to get any closer.

Game 5

Wake Forest 14
Maryland 19

Oct. 6, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Stefon Diggs caught five passes for 105 yards, including a 63-yard reception that set up Justus Pickett's game winning one-yard touchdown run with 5:37 left, as Maryland knocked off Wake Forest 19-14 Saturday afternoon.

Maryland's defense limited Wake Forest to 45 yards in the second half, including just three in the fourth quarter. The Terps controlled possession in the second half, holding the ball for 19:59 compared to 10:01 for Wake Forest.

That allowed Maryland, now 3-2 overall and 1-0 in the ACC, to win its ACC opener for the fifth straight season. The last time the Terps didn't win their conference opener was 2007, a 31-24 overtime loss at Wake Forest.

The Terps took the lead for good with a 5-play, 58-yard drive ending with Pickett's one-yard plunge on third-and-goal. Diggs, who had 113 receiving yards at West Virginia two weeks ago, provided the key play with his 63-yard catch.

Wake Forest had opened the game with a bang. Quarterback Tanner Price connected with Terence Davis on the third play of the game for a 73-yard touchdown to put the Deacons up 7-0.

Maryland answered on the next drive as Brad Craddock connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the Wake Forest lead to 7-3. Craddock added another field goal later in the first quarter, this time from 52 yards, to make it 7-6.

Just before halftime, Maryland quarterback Perry Hills connected with Kevin Dorsey for a 33-yard touchdown to give the Terps a 13-7 lead heading into the locker room.

Wake Forest answered and took a 14-13 lead in the third quarter when Price threw a 7-yard touchdown to Tommy Bohanon.

After Pickett's touchdown, the Maryland defense protected that lead with two key sacks late in the fourth quarter. Kenneth Tate sacked Price with 2:38 remaining in the game on a key third down. On fourth-and-15, Demetrius Hartsfield ended the drive with another sack, sealing the victory.

Game 6

Maryland 27
Virginia 20

Oct. 13, 2012

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Stefon Diggs returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown and fellow freshman Perry Hills threw for one TD and ran for another as Maryland defeated Virginia 27-20 in Atlantic Coast Conference action on Saturday.

The kickoff return was the beginning of a 17-point lead the Terrapins would build in the first quarter.

Up 7-0, Maryland ended Virginia's first possession when Anthony Nixon intercepted a Phillip Sims pass and returned it to the Virginia 32. Five plays later, Hills connected on a 20-yard touchdown pass to Justus Pickett to put Maryland ahead 14-0 less than five minutes into the game.

A Brad Craddock 33-yard field goal made it 17-0 with 4:59 left in the quarter.

Sims, the Alabama transfer making his second start for the Cavaliers, had a rough outing against Maryland's seventh-ranked defense. He had at least three passes batted down at the line of scrimmage, and he lost a fumble on a sack at the Virginia 15 in the fourth quarter as the Cavaliers were trying to come back from an 11-point deficit.

After the teams traded three-and-outs in the third quarter, Virginia cut the margin to 17-10 on Sims' 20-yard touchdown pass to a well-covered E.J. Scott.

On the next play, Virginia's Will Hill recovered a Hills fumble at the Virginia 31. The Cavaliers reached the Maryland 3, but Sims' third-down lob to tight end Jake McGee was incomplete and Virginia settled for Frye's 22-yard field goal.

A personal foul penalty against Virginia after the field goal forced the Cavaliers to kick off from their 20, and Diggs' return put the Terrapins in business at the Virginia 47. A 22-yard pass from Hills to Furstenburg set up Hills' 6-yard touchdown run to make it 24-13.

Game 7

NC State 20
Maryland 18

Oct. 20, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Mike Glennon directed a frantic drive to set up a 43-yard field goal by Niklas Sade with 32 seconds left, and North Carolina State overcame a valiant performance by Maryland backup quarterback Devin Burns in a 20-18 victory Saturday.

After Sade's kick, the Terrapins moved 60 yards in five plays behind third-string quarterback Caleb Rowe before a 33-yard field goal try by Brad Craddock hit the left upright with two seconds remaining.

The Wolfpack (5-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 18-17 and had no timeouts left upon getting the ball at their own 20 with 2:17 to go. Glennon completed a 14-yard pass to Quintin Payton on a third-and-10 and pushed NC State into field-goal range with a 14-yard completion to Rashard Smith.

Burns replaced injured Perry Hills late in the second quarter and nearly produced a victory for Maryland (4-3, 2-1) in the first extensive action of his college career.

Burns, a sophomore, rushed for 50 yards and completed 3 of 4 passes for 47 yards. He wasn't even on the depth chart at quarterback at the beginning of summer practice and ran only two plays this season before being pressed into action.

The Terps went up 18-17 on a 48-yard field goal by Craddock with 13:39 left, but the lead wouldn't stand up.

On the first play following the kickoff, Underwood slipped free down the middle and was 10 yards behind the closest Maryland defender when he hauled in a rainbow pass from Glennon for a 68-yard score.

Undaunted, Burns directed a 74-yard drive that got the Terrapins to 17-15. After peeling off runs of 23, 5 and 14 yards in addition to completing a 38-yard pass to Marcus Leak, Burns scored on a bootleg from the 2.

Maryland 17
Boston College 20

Oct. 27, 2012

BOSTON - Chase Rettig completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Johnathan Coleman with 52 seconds left to give Boston College a 20-17 victory over Maryland on Saturday.

Former fourth-stringer Caleb Rowe completed a 66-yard touchdown pass to Stefon Diggs midway through the fourth quarter to give Maryland (4-4, 2-2) its first lead of the game. But on the first play after BC's go-ahead touchdown, Rowe was intercepted by Spenser Rositano.

A freshman making the start because of injuries to Maryland's top three quarterbacks, Rowe completed 23 of 42 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns.

Boston College opened a 13-0 lead early in the third quarter thanks to a pair of interceptions and then came back after giving up the lead.

Rettig was 21 for 39 for 287 yards and two touchdowns, completing his last six passes on the game-winning drive. Alex Amidon caught nine passes for 137 yards.

Diggs had 11 catches for 152 yards for Maryland, and Wes Brown ran 23 times for 73 yards.

Midway through the third quarter, Rowe hit Kevin Dorsey for 26 yards on a fourth-down pass. Then, on fourth-and-goal from the 1 yard-line, Rowe connected with Nigel King for the touchdown that made it 13-7.

After BC went three-and-out, losing 13 yards on two of Maryland's five sacks, Rowe led the Terps into position for Brendan Magistro's 28-yard field goal that made it 13-10.

BC twice went three-and-out before Maryland took over at its own 27 yard-line and needed just three plays to score. Rowe hit Diggs on a slant pattern, and the receiver headed to the left sideline before outsprinting the coverage to the end zone.

BC took over with 4:45 left, and Rettig missed on four of his first six attempts before clicking. He completed two straight passes, each for a first down, before a sack that set up a second-and-17 that became a third-and-9 and forced BC to call a timeout.

But Rettig hit Amidon for 17 yards to the Maryland 19, Bobby Swigertfor five more yards and then found Coleman in the right flat, with no one between him and the goal line.

Game 9

Georgia Tech 33
Maryland 13

Nov. 3, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Converted linebacker Shawn Petty became the fifth quarterback of the season for Maryland, but Georgia Tech used its option offense to churn out a 33-13 victory over the Terrapins on Saturday.

The Yellow Jackets (4-5, 3-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) amassed 370 yards on the ground against the nation's fourth-ranked defense against the run.

It was 27-0 late in the third quarter before Maryland finally scored on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Petty to Stefon Diggs. Petty also threw a 23-yard TD pass to Diggs on the game's final play, but the injury-depleted Terrapins (4-5, 2-3) dropped their third straight.

Maryland has lost four quarterbacks for the season with injuries, so Edsall turned to Petty, a true freshman recruited as a linebacker. The 6-foot-1, 230-pound left-hander ran for 24 yards on 17 carries and completed 9 of 18 passes for 115 yards. He also fumbled twice and threw an interception.

Maryland had 61 yards in offense in the first half and 198 after halftime,

The Yellow Jackets finished with 401 total yards - all but 31 on the ground. After building a 20-0 lead at halftime, the Yellow Jackets attempted only one pass over the final 30 minutes.

Georgia Tech took a 6-0 lead late in the first quarter when Washington capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with a 1-yard run. Orwin Smith kept the march alive with a 17-yard run on a fourth-and-3 from the Maryland 35.

The Yellow Jackets capitalized on a Petty fumble to make it 13-0 early in the second quarter. After Jeremiah Attaochu recovered the loose ball at the Maryland 33, Smith scored from the 5. Another three-and-out by the Terrapins followed, and a 17-yard punt provided Georgia Tech the ball at the Maryland 49. Seven plays later, Lee scored for a 20-0 lead.

Game 10

Maryland 10
Clemson 45

Nov. 10, 2012

CLEMSON, S.C. - Tajh Boyd threw for 261 yards and three touchdowns in No. 10 Clemson's 45-10 victory over Maryland on Saturday, the Tigers' sixth straight win.

Clemson (9-1, 6-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) had little trouble with the banged-up Terps (4-6, 2-4), who again started linebacker Shawn Petty at quarterback because of season-ending injuries to their four scholarship passers.

The Tigers controlled things early as Boyd passed for a 13-yard touchdown to Adam Humphries and a 28-yard score to DeAndre Hopkins. In between, Clemson defensive end Corey Crawford brought a Petty fumble 16 yards for a touchdown as part of his team's 21-point first quarter.

Besides the four scholarship quarterbacks lost for the season, Maryland was without leading tackler Demetrius Hartsfield because of a torn ACL and star freshman Stefon Diggs due to a bad ankle.

The Tigers scored on their second possession, Humphries stretching out in the end zone to make his first career touchdown grab.

Twelve seconds later, Petty was chased down by defensive end Corey Crawford, who forced a fumble, scooped the ball up and went 16 yards for another score.

A Tigers mistake - Humphries muffed a punt catch inside his team's 20 - led to Maryland's lone score as Petty connected with Devonte Campbell.

Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross finished with 100 yards rushing for the Terrapins.

Game 11

Florida State 41
Maryland 14

Nov. 17, 2012

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland Terrapins needed to be flawless against No. 10 Florida State - but were not. The result was a 41-14 defeat Saturday that extended Maryland's losing streak to five games and ruined its chances of becoming bowl eligible.

Season-ending injuries to four quarterbacks forced true freshman linebacker Shawn Petty to call the signals for the offense. Making his third straight start, Petty went 8 for 19 for 136 yards and two touchdowns, both to Kevin Dorsey.

But it wasn't nearly enough after the Seminoles scored two touchdowns in a span of 12 seconds in the first quarter to go up 14-0.

Devonta Freeman ran for 148 yards and two touchdowns, FSU's top-ranked defense lived up to its billing. The victory enabled the Seminoles (10-1, 7-1) to clinch the league's Atlantic Division crown.

Florida State led 27-0 at halftime and coasted to its fifth straight victory. The Seminoles will play for their 13th ACC crown on Dec. 1.

EJ Manuel completed 17 of 23 passes for 144 yards and two scores to supplement a running game that amassed 237 yards. In their previous game at Virginia Tech, the Seminoles were held to minus-15 yards rushing.

Florida State allowed 27 yards and three first downs before halftime and ended up giving up 170 yards -- well below their nation's best average of 242.9 per game. Were it not for a 42-yard touchdown pass from Petty to Dorsey with 25 seconds left, the Seminoles would have held the opposition under 10 points for the sixth time in 11 games.

In the third quarter, Petty threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to Dorsey on a fourth-down play. It was the final home game for Dorsey and 16 other Maryland seniors.

Game 12

Maryland 38
North Carolina 45

Nov. 24, 2012

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Brandon Ross ran for 141 yards and a touchdown and Stefon Diggs had 248 all-purpose yards, but North Carolina came back to beat Maryland 45-38 Saturday afternoon.

North Carolina's Bryn Renner tied a school record with five touchdown passes, while Gio Bernard ran for 163 yards to lead North Carolina.

The Terps recovered from a 14-0 deficit early by scoring 28 unanswered points to lead 28-14 at halftime. They led 35-21 after Diggs' 99-yard kickoff return to open the second half, but UNC scored 24 straight points to take back control.

Renner connected with Davis for a 50-yard scoring pass to start UNC's game-turning charge, then found Erik Highsmith for a 15-yard scoring pass on the next possession to tie.

Thomas Moore put the Tar Heels ahead to stay with a 22-yard field goal midway through the third, then Bernard - who tallied his fifth 100-yard rushing game this season - scored from 1 yard out to make it 45-35 late in the quarter.

The Terrapins managed a field goal to make it a one-possession game with 3:12 left, but the Tar Heels moved the chains behind Bernard to run out the clock.

Petty, Maryland's fifth QB this year, finished with a career-best 208 yards passing in his fourth straight start. Diggs also threw an 8-yard scoring pass on a trick play with 21 seconds left in the first half, the first of three touchdowns in 34 seconds that seized momentum for the Terrapins.

UNC muffed the ensuing kickoff and Petty connected with Kevin Dorsey for a 28-yard score with 4 seconds left in the half, then Diggs capped the flurry with his long kickoff return coming out of halftime.

Year-By-Year Results

Game-by-game results for every Maryland football season since 1892. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College from 1892-1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953, Southern Conference from 1921-51 (SC standings not available from 1921-32) and South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1920.

Home games were played at Byrd Field or "Old" Byrd Stadium, across the street from the campus on Baltimore Ave., from 1923-1947 and again in 1949. Home games in 1948 were played at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. Home games since 1950 have been played at Byrd Stadium on campus.

Home, road and neutral records are in parentheses (H, A, N). Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1936. From 1961-1967, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

• — indicates conference games
HC — indicates homecoming games
T — indicates games played on Thanksgiving Day
